

Mr. Livingstone relayed that he assisted the President's mother, Virginia Kelly, and her bridge club by arranging transportation in Washington, D.C. during the Inauguration in January 1993.⁹¹

Mr. Livingstone stated that he may have made such statements for two reasons: first, he assumed the President and Mrs. Clinton were involved in hiring decisions;⁹² and, second, he may have told other OPS employees that the President and Mrs. Clinton had placed their confidence in him in an effort to impress upon them the importance of the OPS job and the sensitivity of the information they were charged with protecting.⁹³

C. Mr. Nussbaum Testified That He Was Unaware of a Relationship Between Mrs. Clinton and Mrs. Livingstone Who Also Denied a Personal Relationship.

There is no documentary or other evidence to corroborate the existence of a personal relationship between Mrs. Clinton and Mrs. Livingstone, as suggested by the insert. Mr. Nussbaum testified that he was unaware of such a relationship, and both Mrs. Clinton and Mrs. Livingstone denied that they had such a relationship.

⁹¹ Id. at 5.

⁹² Mr. Livingstone believed that Mrs. Clinton had a direct role in personnel decisions in that she had to "sign off" on all hiring decisions. Id.

⁹³ Id.